Diana Rabinowitz

Administrative Judge and Dispute Resolution Officer

Administrative Judge Rabinowitz joined the Office of Adjudication in March of 2019. The Office provides administrative adjudication and dispute resolution services in procurement, civil penalty appeals and other matters on behalf of the FAA Administrator. Through its Office of Dispute Resolution for Acquisition (ODRA) component, The Office has statutory jurisdiction over protests and contract disputes arising under the FAA's Acquisition Management System. The Office strongly encourages the voluntary use of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes to resolve most cases.

Ms. Rabinowitz has considerable experience in Federal Government contract law, having spent over 20 years in the FAA's Office of the Chief Counsel, Acquisition and Fiscal Law Division. Specific areas of representation included; competitive and noncompetitive contract formation, acquisition planning and strategy, development of screening information requests, evaluation activities, procurement integrity issues, post award activities, litigation risk management and industry/government interface. Ms. Rabinowitz has worked on competitive procurements of up to $3.6 billion in value.

Ms. Rabinowitz is a graduate of the State University of New York at Albany (B.A., Political Science, 1990) and the Hofstra University School of Law (J.D. 1993) where she was named a Fellow in Contract Law. Ms. Rabinowitz is admitted to the New York Bar.
